

Posted October 12, 2008

Back in September, before the release of his new film, One Life to Live's David Fumero (Cristian Vega) talked to Soaps.com about Greetings From The Shore. After its September 12, 2008 release, the film has had much success and has been featured in theaters throughout New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

Not only did David fill us in on what it was like to be a part of the film, encouraging his fans to, "Come hang out at the beach for two hours!" Director Greg Chwerchak sent us an advanced DVD release to review!

"I watched the movie and totally fell in love with the story... Greg once shared a comparison with me, comparing it to a modern day version of "Dirty Dancing", which is one of my all-time favorites, and I totally agree! David did an excellent job, as he does every time he's behind the camera! Not only was the scenery a beautiful touch, the story and characters were brilliant! I wish Greg, David and the rest of the cast and crew nothing but the best - and every success!" - Amy Mistretta

For those who haven't had a chance to catch David's film, we've included a preview below where you'll get a glimpse into David's character, Benicio Aceveda, and all that Greetings From The Shore has to offer!

Soaps.com enjoyed David's film immensely! Stay tuned, as we'll bring you any upcoming showings where you too can take in a little bit of the Jersey Shore!