Award-winning "Greetings From The Shore," a New Jersey film which has won 45 awards at more than 60 film festivals worldwide and stars Paul Sorvino ("Goodfellas") David Fumero (ABC's "One Life to Live"), Jay O'Sanders ("Half-Nelson") and newcomer Kim Shaw ("Sex and the City") opens in theaters Friday, Sept. 12 in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

Mansfield native Gabrielle Berberich (writer/producer) and Greg Chwerchak (writer/director), both New Jersey natives, created "Greetings From The Shore" to tell a personal story and depict the true beauty of the Garden State.

Drawn from the coming-of-age experiences of Berberich, the film is part memoir, part fairytale. It was shot on Barnegat Island in the same town where the real events occurred to Ms. Berberich.

"Greetings" opens exclusively in theaters across New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, including locally at the Clearview Mansfield Cinema 14 and nearby in Rockaway and Parsippany.
